

Forest School "A place where there are no limits to learning and no boundaries to the imagination..." Rachel Wells

Leading Learning in the Outdoors The Forest School Approach— 2 new course dates

Course A: Thursday 29th September 2016 and Friday 30th September 2016

Course B: Thursday 6th April 2017 and Friday 7th April 2017

(2 Day Course) 10.00am-3.00pm

Course Leader: Rachel Wells

Target Phase Staff/Group:

Early Years - Primary Teachers, Support Staff, Extended Schools workers

Aims:

- To understand the context and background to Forest Schools.
- Consider the Impact on Learning and Development.
- To explore the risk benefits of a Forest School Approach.
- To gain knowledge and clear understanding of this way of learning in relation to other outdoor opportunities and experiences.

Participants will:

- Explore a Base Camp and resources for learning - key features to promote learning opportunities.
- Learn by doing through – practical and sensory activities.
- Consider organisation for learning, including policy, planning and risk assessment.
- Understand that Forest School is about learner led experiences.
- Engage in reflective and evaluative practices.

Cost: £210 including lunch

Please note that you will be invoiced on booking your place

You can make a booking or register for the above course in the following ways:

Return a booking form by email or

Ring Frances at Kingswood on 01902 558132 or Email: kingswood@wolverhampton.gov.uk

